Employment History

WKYC Cleveland Ohio Multi-Media Journalist March 2024 – Present

I bring rich leadership experiences from cable news to local news producing, anchoring, and reporting to my current position as the go-to, hard-news reporter for our morning newscast GO. I help direct overall WKYC daily news coverage by proving content leadership to our daily news meeting. I mentor new journalists, encourage original story ideas and support our digital-first mindset. I report for our morning streaming newscast and I anchored our online election night coverage.

WXIX FOX 19 Cincinnati Ohio Multi-Media Journalist July 2022 – March 2024

I worked as a multi-media journalist at the top rated news station in Cincinnati. My last assignment was as lead investigative reporter as well as frequent producing and anchoring our Update Desk. As an mmj reporter I shot and edited many of my own stories but also work with photographers as the assignment dictates. I find, research and report many of my own story ideas as original story reporting is a priority at FOX19.

KTMV, Twin Falls Idaho Morning News Anchor & Reporter January 2021 – July 2022

I transitioned from covering horses to covering the people of Idaho at this terrific Gray station. I started as the anchor/producer of KTMV's weekend newscasts and within a few months I was promoted to morning news Co-Ancor and morning reporter. I am fortunate that Gray supports intra company transfers and fully supported my move to Cincinnati.

TVG (FanDuel) On-Air Talent / Segment Producer August 2016 – January 2021

I worked on-air at TVG, covering live racing from around the world without a teleprompter and typically covering four to five tracks in a single live broadcast. I also led the television production of international racing, which included the following daily responsibilities: writing scripts for teases, working with race scheduling to ensure races of high priority are shown, planning the editing of relevant race replays or B-roll, researching and creating appropriate graphics and sending relevant talking points to the other on-air hosts

At The Races (Sky Sports Racing) October 2015 - August 2017 American Contributor

I joined leading Irish-based Final Furlong Podcast ahead of major international race meetings to lend my thoughts on international horses to watch, as well as, offer my insight on the American horse racing scene.

FOX 1340AM April 2015 - August 2017 Horse Racing Contributor

I appeared weekly on the nationally broadcast "The Fast Track," during which I would give my opinions on the latest news in the world of horse racing.
