

ROB DUNS

Professional Experience

WBBH-TV, Ft. Myers, Florida Meteorologist May 2014 – Present

- Weekday meteorologist for 11 a.m., noon, 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. broadcasts
- Significant experience covering major hurricanes and severe weather events
- Create daily “What’s on Rob’s Radar” topical weather segment
- Field reporter during severe weather events
- Active community involvement with hurricane seminars and school weather safety presentations

WAOW-TV, Wausau, Wisconsin Meteorologist/Reporter April 2011 – April 2014

- Weekend Meteorologist, morning show backup forecaster
- Produce, report and edit Wandering Wisconsin weekly franchise feature

Recognitions

Edward R. Murrow Awards

- Excellence in Innovation (2022)

Florida Association of Broadcast Journalists

- Best Weathercaster (2022, 2021, 2020)
- Weather Reporting Series (2022, 2021, 2020, 2019)
- Best use of technology (2021)

Suncoast Regional Emmy Awards

- Weather Short Form Content (2022, 2021)
- Weather Anchor (2021)

Education

Mississippi State University

- Certificate, Broadcast Meteorology

John Carroll University, Cleveland Ohio

- Master of Arts, Communications Management
- Bachelor of Arts, Communication and Theatre Arts. Minor: Foreign Affairs