

ROB DUNS

Professional Experience

WBBH-TV, Ft. Myers, Florida Meteorologist/Reporter May 2014 to Present

- Weekday meteorologist for 11 a.m., noon, 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. broadcasts
- Significant tropical weather forecasting and experience including Hurricane Irma
- Field reporter during severe weather events including Hurricane Hermine
- Executive Producer, The NBC2 Great Hurricane Challenge Game Show 8/2017
- Host of A-Team Challenge academic competition Spring 2018

School District of Lee County Meteorology Instructor September 2016 – January 2017

- Lee County's Lifelong Learning Program
- Introduction to Meteorology for Pilots and weather enthusiasts

WAOW-TV, Wausau, Wisconsin Meteorologist/Reporter April 2011 – April 2014

- Weekend Meteorologist, morning show backup forecaster
- Produce, report and edit Wandering Wisconsin weekly franchise feature segment

WJCU-FM, University Heights, Ohio June 2006 – December 2010

- Graduate Assistant Station Advisor August 2009-May 2010
- Student Station Manager
- Student weather forecaster providing hourly live and recorded updates

Recognitions

- Wisconsin Broadcasters Association
 - Best Feature Report 2nd place, 2013; Best Online Personality 3rd place, 2014
- Toronto First Take International Student Film Festival
 - Best Documentary; "Trauma", 2007

Education

Mississippi State University, Certification, Broadcast Meteorology

John Carroll University, Cleveland Ohio

- Master of Arts, Communications Management
- Bachelor of Arts, Communication and Theatre Arts. Minor: Foreign Affairs